MONDAY, MAY 9. 1737.

No. 583.

LETTERS from Dantzick say, the Duke Regent of Courland dy'd there, the 25th of April, O. S. aged Four-score and two, being born the 2d of November, 1655.

From Breslau, That the said Duchy has suffer'd very much lately by Fires; That besides a Fire that broke out the 11th ult. O. S. near St. Christopher's Church, in the Town of Breslau, which was not extinguish'd without great Difficulty, there was a great Fire that very Night at Creutzbourg, in the Principality of Brieg, by which the whole Town was reduc'd to Ashes, as well as the Town-house, the Salt Warehouse, the Custom-House, and the chief Parish-Church, which was a fine Structure; so that the Cattle, and 7 Houses near it, were all that escap'd the Flames. 'Tis suspected that it was set on Fire on Purpose by some Incendiaries. A Farm-House in the Village of Kune, belonging to the Ecclesiasticks that serve the Church of Creutzbourg, was burnt the same Night, with a great Number of Cattle. The Village and Manor-house of Blamberg, in the Principality of Crossen, belonging to the Family of Schmettau, were likewise reduc'd to Ashes by a Fire, not long before; during which the Wind blew very hard.

From Paris they give us the following Extract of a Letter from one of the chief Noblemen of Lorain, dated at Luneville. 'Our Grief for the Loss of our old Sovereign, gives Way infensibly to the Affection we bear to King Stanislaus. 'Tis certain, that we who are us'd to love our Sovereigns with so much Fidelity and Zeal, deserv'd no less than a Prince so worthy of our Affection as is his Polish Majesty; who being always equally affable and gracious, is of most easy Access, and pleasing to every one that approaches him. As his Title of King is an Additional Motive of Respect to that which accrues to him from his Virtues, several Noblemen thought themselves oblig'd to pay him even greater Compliments than they us'd to render to the Dukes of Lorain; which King Stanislaus perceiving, said to them, Don't mind my Quality of King, but love me as your Duke, and then I shall depend entirely on your Affection.' This Prince having inform'd himself of the Order and Ceremonial observ'd by the late Duke of Lorain at his Court, has resolv'd to observe the same at his; and, like the late Duke, he dines in Publick, at a Table spread for 24 of the Lorain Nobility. The King lodges as yet in the Prince of Craon's House at Luneville; but he proposes to go in a Fortnight's Time to the Castle, which will by that Time be quite furnish'd.

They write from Hamburg, that the Magistrates of that City have publish'd a Placart for suppressing their Bank, which is of about 11 Years standing.

From Barcelona, that the Distemper which was so epidemic in Catalonia is entirely stopp'd, and the Communication with Roussillon again set open.

From Gibraltar, that Muley Abdallah's reascending the Throne of Barbary is confirm'd; that Muley Arifa is retir'd from Mequinez; and that the Blacks Army is divided into two Bodies.

From Cadiz, that Capt. Peterson, Commander of the Protector, one of the Dutch Men of War that cruize against the Saltee Rovers, has lately gain'd the following Advantage.

Having perceiv'd 6 little Moorish Vessels steering towards Saltee, he stood in to the Shore as near as possible, to hinder their Landing. Three of their Vessels, which made better Sail than the rest, escap'd by Favour of the Wind; but the other three not being able to follow, endeavour'd to get ashore: Upon this Capt. Peterson sent out his Long Boat with Soldiers, who attack'd one of the Vessels, and forc'd the Moors, after some Resistance, to throw themselves into the Water, in hopes of swimming to Land, but most of them were kill'd or wounded in the Attempt. During this the two other Boats retir'd behind a Rock, and had cast Anchor there, but at the Approach of the Long Boat the Moors likewise jump'd overboard; but most of 'em were shot, or kill'd by Club-Musket, and only a few sav'd themselves by Swimming. The Prisoners that were taken, who were only two Moors and a Boy that knew not how to swim, being carry'd on board the Dutch Man of War and examin'd, said, That these 6 Vessels were bound from Azamor, with Provisions to Saltee, where was such a Scarcity, that the half-starv'd Inhabitants were forced to live upon the raw Herbage of the Fields. As the Moors of the three Ships that were taken and carried into Cadiz, had not Time to throw their Provisions overboard, their Cargo, which was entire, consisted of near 2000 Fanegas, or Bushels, of Wheat, besides a great Quantity of Butter, and Oil of Barbary, Saffron, and Skins of red Maroquin. These Prizes were not a little welcome to the People of Cadiz, where Provisions, by Reason of the Continuance of the Drought, began to fall short. Several People immediately bought up three fourths of the Wheat; and 'tis computed that the Sale of the whole Stock of Provisions will amount to 5000 Pieces of Eight.

Norwithstanding what was insinuated lately in the Paris A-la-main, Letters by the last Mail from Madrid say, that several Plans have been laid before the Council, for reducing his Catholick Majesty's Forces, both by Land and Sea, that his Subjects may enjoy the Fruits of Peace.

Hague, May 14. N. S. The States of the Province of Holland continue their Session, and their Deputies having had some Conferences with Commissioners from the several Colleges of Admiralty, it is expected they will soon come to a Resolution upon the Complaint made to them by the Town of Rotterdam, relating to the Duties on Goods collected there. The Convoy that is usually sent out to meet the East India Ships, is sail'd from the Texel, those Ships being expected home in a few Days. The Marquis de Fenelon is expected here To-morrow, on his Return from the Court of France.

His Body was opened and search'd by several Surgeons; but the Corpse having been interr'd twelve Days, and the Flesh putrified, the Surgeons could not be so clear in their Opinions as otherwise they might, if the Body had been opened sooner. To Persons of either Sex Afflicted with any Species of the PALSY, or other NERVOUS DECAYS.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISEASES,

PALSIES, and PARALYTICK Disorders so frequent as of late they have been, nor have the usual Remedies been found adequate to those pertinacious Distempers: This occasioned a Physician, who employ'd his Thoughts much concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Elixir, peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palsy, and all other nervous Complaints now reigning, which after he had experienced on vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and always with surprising Success, even so as infallibly to cure by it the Palsy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Disorders, he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, that so those labouring under these miserable Ailments, might know where to meet with a safe and most certain Cure, which it accomplishes in so short a Time, and with such Ease and Pleasure (a few Drops of it being a Dose, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and Bowels) as is almost incredible to relate.

But the taking one Bottle of it only, demonstrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Patients soon find all Numbness, Deadness, and Shaking, or Resolusion of the Nerves, as well as all convulsive, cramp-like, or painful Contractions of them, vanish and return no more; and this, though these Diseases have been of many Years standing, and whether occasioned by long Illness, fast Living, hard Drinking, or any other Cause; for it performs all that can be wish'd for in Nervous Cases, creates an Appetite, expels Wind, rectifies the Digestion, occasions laudable Chyle, attenuates the Blood and Juices, causes a free and regular Circulation of 'em thro' the Capillary Vessels, revives and increases the Spirits, warms, comforts, strengthens, and replenishes the Brain and whole Nervous System, hence the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, the Limbs restored to their pristine Steadiness and Strength, and the Palsy and all Paralytick Disorders and Nervous Decays suddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patients themselves, and all about them.

This sovereign and incomparable Elixir is permitted to be sold only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross-Keys and Star in Cornhill, near Stock's Market, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with printed Directions.
